A NEW BREED OF MILKSHAKES

Proud Festival Roots

In 2004 Shaken Udder took to the road & became a huge hit on the festival scene. We acquired a loyal following, so our next mission was to create Britain's best bottled milkshake. We launched our retail range in 2008.

SHAKEN UDDER
A NEW BREED OF MILKSHAKES

Made with real fruit, chocolate and fresh British milk!

Shaken Udder has been whizzing up proper milkshakes for welly-wearing festival-goers since 2004. These days they also sell to the posh folk through high-end stores such as Harvey Nichols and Selfridges, but the retro brand still remains.

Frontmedia has designed a whole host of marketing collateral to accompany them on their journey of festivals and exhibitions around the country, including milkshake cups, big banner stands, adverts, postcards and even shelf wobblers! Multi-talented is definitely our middle name.
